魔法 龍術士

Yeah, and the one who's going to be accided is me! I haven't even read the book he told me to read!!

Agrina, you want me to return this book

Rita catch!!

Mano, return it to-

Caught!

But I'm so tempted to play With Hata and the rest.

And I was thinking that I could read quietly at Maciel's house

Sigh.

Here, it's about the basics of Dragon Magic.

Rita, Mano, Suu, stop it!!!

Huh? Is it so

Of the dragon magic books there are 3 books about the basics. If you were to add all of them up, the number is really huge.

I didn't memo rise them.

I don't like to study too, only when I need to do research, or when I'm reading to the baby dragons, I pick up the books.

But didn't you memorise all the books about dragon magic?

Huh?

You spent the whole day playing yesterday

So

Yes, while Agria is looking after everyone, I have some free time to clean up this place. It's been a while since I last cleaned it.

Is it better this way?

Nata: I can handle it from here on you go and help Agria practice.

don't want a.

哇哇

哇

So we'll play house after all

Agria must play house with us!

Let's play house!

That is no fun.

So, what should we play?

I can play with the baby dragons as much as I want!

That means,

Play hide and seek.

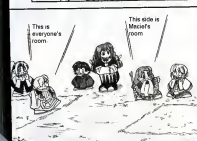

You better not...

Er...

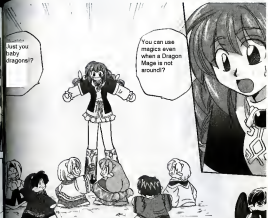

At the start, the baby dragons and I learnt them through games. Instead of me teaching them about the dragon magics.

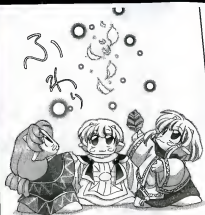

ちん

That's true...
She might not be practising on her magics...

But she said she went over to study,
if she's playing
then I'll never forgive her!

Why are you
so angry
don't she play with them often?

Yes...
What?

Did what is it?

You see...

But it's not as good as Maciel's

And the feel is different.

It'll vanish
after 1
hour.

It is thinner than real leaves...

Wow, that's amazing!
You've
duplicated the leaves!

It's. It's
the coherence
technique!

Do you want to go to Maciel's
house and look?

Usually, we say 1 hundred steps. So... so scary.

Even if he's not by their side, he still understand the baby dragons' needs.

Maciel
he...

At the most appropriate moment, he brought a book that the baby dragons and I would be interested in.

I wanted to say that to be able to use magics, and live with dragons, he's really cool.

When I heard that Father is a Dragon Mage.

High

But, to be able to use all kinds of dragons magics is really great that's why I thought Maciel is extra cool 555...

Ah

唉...

But after living with him and the fire dragons, the "really cool" thought disappeared immediately

Translator's note: "The Adventures of the Sixth Wind Dragon King, Rotzuku" has been recommended by Corsette's number one Dragon Mage's dragons. Grab your copy now at your neighbouring book stores now!

We've heard it once

The story is very interesting

No... I don't.

Agria, do you know about "The Adventures of the Sixth Wind Dragon King Rotzuku"?

And then he married the human princess

He travelled through out the entire world!

It's an ancient story of the Wind dragon tribe's king

Hm, it sounds interesting.

To suit the baby dragons' taste, some details are added in. And the book is quite thin. do you want to read it?

Maciel
he...

Then you read to the baby dragons first, we'll have tea after that.

A diagram of a soil profile showing a single horizon labeled 'Ah'.

Stop
it!
Rita!!

So I'm in the wrong, alright?!

Yes...

But I realised.
Agrina totally don't know how to use that magics.

hah
hah
hah...

Agrina

Ahh! Hot, it's hot!

Let go of the book!

I'm alright, I'm alright. It's just a small wound and I've already put some medication.

Agrina, how's
your bum?

Luckily Nata noticed it in time
and put it out.
Thank you Nata.

Oh.
Thank
you.

Wow.
Just now, I really thought that Agrina had controlled the fire.

Ah—
huh?

Ri

Be... Because I am not as gentle as Hata. I only know how to trick her, and disturb her when she's studying.

That's why Agrina hates me, and run to other's house to play. She's so angry at me.

Huh ?

If I really hate you, don't talk about staying with you. I wouldn't even speak with you!

Ouch!

Didn't I say so, I'm angry because you used your magics.

What idiotic words

Then let's go and play.

Agrina is alright now. You can go and look for her.

Wheeeeeee

...Zzz

Because because Hata is so gentle

Rita? Why are you crying?

Rita !!

They protect the dragons, and care for them.

Dragon mages borrow the dragon's magic, and help to look after the baby dragons as an exchange.

Ifuoto

ha ha ha 하하하하

Since Corsette's number 1 Dragon Mage has said so, then I'm relieved.

And so, Dragon Mages are also called dragon baby sitters.

Of course!

Wait a minute, does that mean I have to play too?!

Everyone

!?

Ah, since everyone is here, let's play house!

This fellow is dangerous!

ha
ha ha ha
ha

If I hate a person, I'll just bash that person up!

Yes, I feel that she'll become a great Dragon Mage.

didn't say it, I never said that sort of stuff!

Rita, didn't you say you don't like me? We can fight it out anytime.

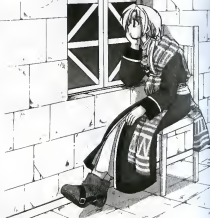

Would Agrina become a good Dragon Mage?

Meciel

Actually, everyone gets along well with each other.

第2話 ~寄宿冒險記~

I'm not playing!

You have no choice!
Even Nats is playing!

What a joke!
I'm not going to play house!!

We mabar it's the trainee or the baby
dragon, everyone is happily growing

Meo, well!

Ah! Meo has escaped!

哇——

Yay we're having a race—

We're racing?

!?

Yah! heh

I know it

If you can't use dragon magics, then you can't be called a Dragon Mage

—And of course, if it's happy, then it's not studying

The dragon magics that you use serves as a good practise for the baby dragons, but if Sata is to learn larger scale magics, it would be better at my place

I'm also using some large scale magics, and coherence magics, there's no need to go over to your house-

Over right?
Sata is going to stay out overnight

I understand, Milieu onisan, I'll be leaving Sata in your care

I'll inform you once I've decided on the date

But-

I want to go-

After all, using the coherence magics between different dragons is not the same

I want to stay overnight at this place!

Huh?
You want to look after Sata?

Yes, for around 2-3 days it would be better for Sata to learn some larger scale magics, and coherence magics between wind dragons.

Roku? I remember you are called.

What is it, Rotaruku?

Just call me Roku, Sata.

Yup, he's going to learn through play, Roku!

Jen isn't Sata here to learn?

I'll just sweep the floor...

The staying overnight adventure begins!

Milieu teacher

I thought everyone has already flew up to the sky to play

1st
At the Wind Dragon Mage's house

Ah, Sata can you fly on your own?

Fly

angry 生氣一

It wouldn't use much effort to give me a more girl like name.

I can play with Sata again today!

Wow~

Ready, go!

Then everyone fly to the clouds first and see.

Lane can already fly on his own. Though it's just rounds around the house.

and you're the same age as

Just remember what you've learnt from Miciel and you can fly quite well already.

You must listen to Jen, and not try anything dangerous.

Calm down, calm down.

I want to fly. I want to try!

Alright

And At the Earth Dragon Mage's home

Then I'll be waiting here Jen, Rottaruku, Gureisu, Lane I'll be leaving Sato with you.

No, Ats, is there any books you want to read? I'll help you find.

Yes. Currently, on the ground level is Lambales teacher's library. It'll be moved down using magics one day. It has the fewest books, and most of them are my collections.

Actually, there isn't much water dragon magic to begin with. To summon rain, we need to work with the wind dragons. For drawing underground waters, we need the earth dragons. Even to make rainbows, we have to cooperate with the light dragons.

Water dragon's coherence techniques.

But I can read many books that I rarely see so I'm very happy!

It's so rare that you come here, but the current earth Dragon Mage is like this, and his trainee dragon is like him too...

Seems like you can't practise your magic.

I'm sorry Ata

3rd
At the Water Dragon Mage home

That's right but there are lots of troublesome magics though.

お ha
お ha
お ha

And even if earth dragon magics are large scaled they are also not very noticeable...

sigh

Like predicting plate tectonic movements...

Even if it's troublesome magics learnt from books, but it can't be used.

Don't worry, if there's any books you want to read, I'll help you take them.

Yay

Lync, you are the pillar

But- Meta and Kurara and Lai are princesses, I have no choice but to be the prince.

I am able to do that, but I won't help you. Today, you are supposed to practise the Coherence technique between water dragons.

Then, then let Elle make a castle using water dragon magical! It would be more stable!

Because, if no one is to use magics to support the castle, it would collapse.

!?

"I am the pillar"

"I'll be leaving first"

Then Tinku is the prince!

Everyone will be princesses

Yes, play with us too, Elle

Elle come and be a princess too!

I've seen this picture of a castle in a picture book. If everyone is to help, then we can make a big castle, right?

Of course it's to play the Princess Game!

We can make a big castle, but what do you want to do with it?

If you all really want to play the Princess Game, it's alright

We're using this magics for Meta and Meta seems very interested in it too!

I want to play the Princess Game too! There are too many boys at home, even if it's playing House, we seldom play it.

So you are here

If he finds out, he will surely throw them away. All our previous stuff were confiscated by him.

But you must keep this a secret from Kado.

Kado can be really petty!

And don't tell him about this hiding place.

It's nothing. It's nothing.

What are you doing?

Kimi, Karane, Lotta, we'll go to the upper floor with Teta!

We know it, we are just bring Teta around the house.

Didn't I ask you to play with Kimi and the rest?

Then this is a book of magic to making interesting plants, and the records of our previous experiments.

Plus the Singing Lemon and the Forgetful Grape!

and that is the Sleeping Apple.

These are the seeds of the Laughing Strawberry.

4th
At the Wood Dragon Mage house

Lynn, what do you mean by that?

Yes, how do we put it? Elle is more suitable to be a queen.

Princess... I haven't been princess like in the past.

Good, aren't we going to make castles! That pillar, you better support the castle well!

Huh?

Although you are good at researching complicated magics, but your basics are terrible. Instead, Tata is better at the basic magics, right?

ふー

Using plants to hide objects, it is one of the basic and easiest magics. But I never thought that as wood dragons, you never found the stuff I hid here.

Tata, come and help me!

I'll hide it all you can't find it!

Well that's good

Go and learn the basics from Tata. Just as long as it's not for pranks, no matter what you hide, I won't go and find them.

There's no choice. I am just petty.

Didn't you try them away?

Ah~ Aren't these the stuff you confiscated in the past?

These are the stuff you have created. If I throw them away, it would be too wasteful.

Hmm, about this...

Hey, what are we going to play?

Let me see too!

With more practice, you can be as good as me!

...As good as Meo?

Um, that is good.

If we can't alter the temperature well, then the glass will break easily.

It's actually very good at strong temperatures.

So I told you to use magic to alter the temperature, even Hata is good at it.

It's hot!

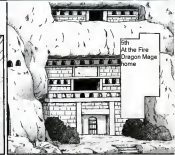

Alright, I'm coming.

Meo, lend me your fire dragon magic.

Oi, come out!

At the Fire Dragon Mage home

Then why don't you come in? You just use fire dragon magic, then it won't be hot anymore.

"Even Dad came in."

Don't play in the work room!

Is that Maciel?

We, Hata has such nimble hands.

Wow, the sunset is so beautiful-

6th
At the Light
Dragon
Mage home

We'll let the lake light up, it would be very beautiful.

But the sun has already set

We should start with the light dragons' coherence
magics

Good-I'm coming in!

Moon light is caused by the reflection of the sun's light.
Although the magics is more complicated, but we'll still be able to do it using light dragon magics.

You look
the moon
is coming out.

we'll gather
the light
from there.

ひま

I'll help
you

ひま

ててててて

Haha-

touché

Me too

I want to help you too!

Yes!

Then let's start Mamiell. Faru, are you ready?

Me too.
Kata, how is it like on the moon?

Ah, is that so?
I came to Corsetel
when I was still an egg, so I didn't know about the moon.

Yes, and Kata was hatched
on the moon
too.

I know that,
the light
dragons'
home is on the moon!

Huh?

Ah... He is different.

For Nata, he started learning when he was an egg.

But Nata still remembers
what happened around him when he was in the egg.

He he,
because you were very young in the past.

I can't remember.

Ah the light dragons'
mountain light up.

7th
At the Dark
Dragon
Maga's home.

The
moon comes out.

You can chat
later.
Look.

I want to hear too!

Is this
so?

Rasuru, other goes back to settle stud. why didn't you tell us about the moon?

Ah, really. It's the light
dragons'
coherence
technique.

Rasuru

Everyone...
They shouldn't have brought trouble to the other Dragon mages
and got along well with the other baby
dragons.

While the baby dragons are staying at other's house, playing and studying happily...

Dark dragon mages...
It's very large scale...
If it's not 3 people, we won't be able to use it...

Nata
...

Seems like even little Kata is not thinking of going home, and trying he's best too

Raruku keeps thinking of brother...
Kata keeps thinking of Maciel...
You only care about your own stuff,
seems like you don't care about your own tribe...

The dark dragon tribe travelled towards the end of the sky. I want to use magics
to trace their route.
But...

幫我！好嗎

But...
When I grew up...
I want to return to our tribe...
So I want to know
the route they've taken...

nod
nod
nod
know

Yes.

Your family is so well
kitted.
When the little guys are out, it's normal that you'll feel lonely.
And they would be staying out for 3 days?

Each time the baby dragons
are here, they'll chat
about you.

What
is it

Ah, Maciel.

Though I want to say I'm lonely,
but...

Yes, didn't
the baby dragons stay out tonight.

It's rare that you'll come here alone.

Good night—

Come over here, let's chat.

Ah

Are you feeling lonely, now that the baby dragons are alone?

tee hee

For the baby dragons to stay with me, is it really suitable?

I'm
thinking.

For the baby dragons to stay with the baby dragons from the same tribe, and the Dragon Mage of the same ability, would it be better?

I kept thinking about this—

Since it's so, why don't he name me after the beautiful 7th wind dragon queen?

Everyone dinner is ready~

Then what about my name?

That's good my teacher anyhow named me after using the old wind dragon king's name.

But every one likes my name

Rottaruku is a heroic name. I think it's nice.

Is Maciel having dinner now?

Dinner...

Coming

Jen, what's up for dinner?

Ah don't worry, you can take them home

But the books from the underground library are not supposed to be taken outside.

Yes, I want to read them with Maciel

You really want to borrow these books back to read?

Yup, I heard that because he thought too much his brain was cooked.

Guess what are the baby dragons doing now

Maciel.

Sometimes, I just think too much, and become depressed.

I'm sorry, I've talked about something strange

They should be chatting happily with the other dragons and the Dragon Mages about you

They should be talking about you

Yes, Maciel kept thinking and thinking, before he gave you your name.

Just as you are thinking of those children they are also thinking about you.

Maciel is a pumbaa oriel

Well, Rai already has a fiancee, and Miao is a bit rowdy.

The was really bad tasting

What to do Seyaru
Elder brother
Kata is crying.

ah ah
ah

I think he wants to go home

state's hands are so nimble
I want on too...

It's not bad
for your first try.

So glass artisan Hata, you managed to make everyone

Elder brother

Haha, just put them in this box.
Aghina, where's the box stuffin'?

...I won't forgive
you.

After going home, Maciel would surely praise me.

Maciel would be really happy. I want to see him soon.

What is he doing now?

What is Maciel doing now?

Tata !

Welcome home, Tata.

Macel-
I'm back-

Thank you for helping to look after Mata

Ah, everyone is back again

Here, it's a present.

You are back, Mata.
Haha.

Thank
you

Why did everyone know I've

...a feast? It's so embarrassing.

I've said it. It's a good thing Agnia wasn't the one sending Mata back.
If it's her, she'll surely return home only after having a big meal.

Ah, this...

Seems like I've sent her over too early.

You are going to prepare a big meal for the baby
dragons, aren't you?

I'm going back.

Sata.

To come home at such a time. I mustn't be careless...

Tata,
you're back.

You must come back and play,
we'll welcome
you at anytime.

It's just a coincidence that we met.

What
everyone is out to welcome
the baby
dragons?

"That's right. I thought so too

Hey!?

Arrived just before Macel went out.

The earth
Dragon Maga's home is very messy so I came home early.

So, Ata was the first to return?

So who's next

It's not Neta...

angry

気

It's really great, Kato. You've tried.

For Kato to come home at such a time I'm surprised too.

It's alright it's alright.

I tried and tried and tried and tried to come home first, but everyone arrived earlier than me.

Maciel

The feast would be cooked soon, everyone wait for a while.

Everyone had tried hard. After Kato comes home you'll tell me about your overnight stay.

わあ

OK

Everyone

Kato too.

Meta, come and play when you have the chance.

Kato too, you can come and play at the work shop.

Kato and Nata would be coming back before evening, we'll have to hurry and prepare a big meal.

To let them stay at others' house overnight, it's so great.

What interesting stuff had happened to them, I want to know.

You and Itaruku might have forgotten, but you should be able to understand the feeling of wanting to get back to get home.

when Elize was in the egg, she had memories of her tribe people

In the end, we aren't able to trace the dark dragons' hilly path.

Nata, everyone is out to welcome you

He should be nearby now.

every one will be going

Let's go and welcome Nata back

Thank you,
Nats

Help me to tell Enne. I would be
soon

And so, the baby dragons' men and grand adventure has ended

Now
everyone will have more adventures and grow with them

I have to work harder

No matter
when, I'm still as afraid to be lonely

The one who didn't grow is me

Although it's small adventures,
everyone is slowly
growing with them

魔法 龍術士

Chapter 3
~The 8th Dragon Mage~

第3話 ~第8位龍術士~

Corsette's
8th Dragon
Mage

This means, I'm still not that reliable...

A dark
dragon's wings is a sign of worry—
right?

Just a few days, he did hide his wings when sleeping.

ふん...

Everyone is sleeping
so soundly.

Yes,

Sata's sleeping posture is so bad.

Nata, you can hide
your wings when sleeping, so you can sleep better.

すん んんんん

Woah

It hurts

Good, the pain has frown off

Yup

I think
so...

Fly off!

は Fly off, pain.

Fly off!

は Fly off,
pain.

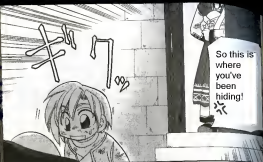

Huh?
It's so dark.

Years after years of waiting for a suitable Dragon Mage to appear,

The Elder waiting,

Click place a long time ago.

Till he is tired of waiting anymore.

So this is where you've been hiding!

An egg

Ah...

I really can't stand
you...

I just leave you for a moment
and you run off
to all sort of places!

Huh?

You are alright
staying in there?

Never mind, just get out immediately!
I can't get in.

Oh, ok.

Hello.

And yes, you better not tell anyone that you went into that room

Huh?

He

You found him, that's good. So he ran out to play again.

Mibu.

But since you won't become a Dragon Mage, it's alright if you don't understand.

She left after leaving this child behind. Really appearing before the sun rose. I thought that something major had happened.

Yes where is she right now?

That child was brought back by Cayedeline?

Excuse me... That egg doesn't it needs to be incubated?

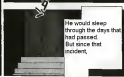

Dragon eggs doesn't require incubation to hatch. They need someone to help them break the shell.

He had awakened.

Before the incident

He would sleep through the days that had passed. But since that incident,

That child made him conscious.

From a long time ago, he was able to view the world through the egg.

Well.

Brother?
He's not here as a Dragon Mage trainee?

She left to find father but brought back a child instead.

And she even said he can be my brother!

Is that so, then it's a pity.

What are you saying?
I heard from mother, he was in a wooden crate travelling down the river stream.

What he's only a child, and he's traveling?

I've asked him he's looking for his uncle, who's working overseas. Once his uncle is located, I'll send him outside.

Even this wind dragon doesn't admit that I'm a Dragon Mage. It's been half a year but it still refuses to break out of it's shell

Well about this...

I didn't become a Dragon Mage because I want to be a Dragon Mage

Dark dragons usually take a longer time to hatch.

Ah... Yes, where is the child that Cajodeline brought back?

Mother spent 3 years to get Raruku to hatch, and I heard that it'll take even longer for Enes. So you don't really need to be worried.

Ahi JōHui?

Yes! He disappeared off, I was searching for him!!

Really, he sure likes to disappear off on his own. Where could he have gone?

Ah, Winulu you've finally become a postman

But I can only search when I'm not working, so I'm not sure if I'll be of much help

What are you saying didn't you already become a great wind Dragon Mage?

That's great. I also have the ability to fly and is capable of becoming a postman too...

Ah, Miku, I've heard of it from my mother. I'm here to help you.

Really, how could you say
that.
This is a human child.

00 00

Are you Mileu's
first hatched
dragon?

Mileu?
That wind Dragon
Mage?

It's quite some distance from the Beastmen village.

Is it?
I didn't hear anything.
Morn.

Trainee Dragon
Mage?

That means, you are

Is that so?

I always like like...

Ah.

Yes... Yes, I asked you here today because I want to ask you something.

Rasuen

ぼん

What is it?
Why are you
here?
Have you lost your way?

I don't know how to get back home

Can't
home.

Rasuen,
there's a child.

Ah.

This way, you won't be alone anymore

If anything is to happen, just take him as your brother, like what Caydelina told you to.

Who
...
Who
...

You keep drilling on the small details. We'll meet again tomorrow

Could it be the dark dragons'?

Which Dragon Mage's trainees are you?

Ah, so you are brought back by Caydelina.

Who's the one who's worried about small details

And yes, if you want to find the child, you can ask my mother.

She has seen him before, so she'll be able to locate him with dark dragon magic.

I know. I'll go to the place where he's found and take a look.

I wanted to ask you to help find the child's uncle, but even the child disappeared.

If we know which city the child is from, then it's easier to locate his uncle.

Bye.

ouch
ouch

Wa
!!

And yes

叩

After I accepted the role of the wind Dragon Mage, all the wind dragon I know returned to their tribe.

I'm not caring too much.

Lonely...
Is that so.

Alone.

alone

If that child has a place to return to, that is the best.

Winifu become a postman and seldom returns to Corsetel.

If he becomes a Dragon Mage, he might not be able to return at all.

But,

And at the dark Dragon Mage's home, there's still an egg which should be hatched soon.

Because I can slightly detect his gift for light dragon magics, so he should also have the gift for dark dragon magics.

After all, Morin, you are the light Dragon Mage's successor.

You understand his gifts?

That egg has always been waiting, because very few people has the gift of dark dragon magics.

You entered that room with the egg?
That's right, only people with the gift of dark dragon magics is able to enter that room.

Is it that egg in the very dark room?

This way, the egg won't be lonely anymore.

At least that'll see me all home.
Now the great spirits could surely complain.

Why do you have to break out of your shell
now.

So you came to such a place!!

So, Jen is born, it is good.

Congrats for being born, wind dragon Jen.

But wind dragons are well known for their temper, and strong wildness.
Come over, Jen.

Are you hiding something from me?

Yes, Miku, about that child.

I'm still thinking what should I do in the future.

I'm the wind Dragon Mage. I'm your family.

But if there's some place where the child has to go, then I better go with his wishes.

But... Wenn's mother said he is to become my brother.

I was really happy.

That's right, then we'll do as you've said.

Please, where he should be waiting.

Yes, I told him to wait here.

Where is the child now? Did you bring him back with you?

Wifu? What is it? Would you be returning home for dinner the next holiday?

He disappeared again! I'll go and find him!

Oh.

I heard from mother, on a moonlit night, she found him after some spirits kept calling her.

According to Rausaru, that child has the gift of light dragons. Are you sure that he's not here as a Dragon Mage trainee?

That's right.

Seems like this child has the ability to train dragon kings, which only appears once every 1000 years.

Because he has equal gifts of all regions, even among dragons, such a gift is very rare.

It should be real.

He can become the dragon king's Dragon Mage.

This, then I'll be your Dragon
Mage.

I tell you,
someone told me I have the ability to be Dragon
Mage.
Huh? You know it?

Good
night.

I've found out about the child Mitsu
asked me to check on.

Rock-slide

I want to stay too...

And become family with everyone...

Upstream I found a half destroyed
mountain path and village.
The rockslide
occured at midnight
everyone living downhill is buried

I heard that very few people have the gift for dark dragon
magic.

You are waiting to come out of the egg aren't you

but I never's
such a Dragon
Mage. you can come out right?

That's it! The one who told me to watch out back at the tree wrapped house is you!
It's the same feeling!

That child's remaining relative is his uncle, who left the village to work in the city because he was too poor. Without any relatives left, he sat in a crate and floated downstream to find his uncle... And no one stopped him.

I asked those people at the village ruins, they said the child was saved when he was thrown out of the house together with his blanket.

He already has no place to return to.

I didn't know that you floated downstream just to find your uncle. Never mind, it's useless now.

This kind of stuff, why didn't you tell me earlier!?

Ah... Ah... I'm sorry.

I don't want to be alone.

Father, mother, and aunt. I won't see them anymore, and I don't know where uncle is. Mitsu-san said I can't stay here too...

very lonely...

very lonely.

Alone on his own.

I don't want to be alone anymore...

We would be staying together.

I am Dragon Mage Maciel. I'm your family.

And so, the child
who was afraid to be lonely,
became the 8th Dragon Mage.

For as long as you like it, you can stay as long as you want. Just get out of this room quick. I told you so.

So I... I can stay here?

Yes, tomorrow I'll introduce you to everyone in Corsetel
that you are my brother...
And a Dragon Mage
trainee.

cough

I can stay here.

He said it.

Everyone will stay together...

Actually, the leaders of the dragons gave him
a special title, but he had never used it.

Yes,
I'll become a Dragon
Mage.

Hm.

Ohh. I'm scolded by Nata again.

Nata is thinking, it's not like that

You got Mao! all for yourself!

Nata
is so lucky.

One day, I'll become an independent Dragon Magi!

Know it Nata,
you don't need to be so angry

Aight,

I accidentally fell asleep, I'll reflect on it

Forever.

chao

第4話 ~怪樣的開始~

The Dragon Lingers and the baby dragons live
happily together.

Wie, tell it to us, tell it!

We just remembered
the past

Ah, what happened?

Nata
smiled

In Corsette

Today, tomorrow

and always

To glance about while crossing the bridge is dangerous.

Wow, what a dreamlike meeting.

Running atop
the river...
That person is a water dragon?

おー...
うー...

Be careful
on the way.

Wow, I'm late.
I'm late!

After knowing how they've met and started dating,
I kept thinking

My Dragon Mage and the previous Dragon Mage's
trainee dragon is a couple.

and as I was thinking

Hey, it's dangerous.

One day, I'll want to meet up with a great person too
in such settings.

Are you
alright?

Some would become the leader who overlooks all seven dragon tribes.

For the baby dragons arriving on Corsehel, such hopes and expectations were placed on them.

Meo would become the fire dragon tribe's future leader.

Some would become protectors, who would protect the tribes from disasters.

Some would become the leaders of the individual tribes of dragons.

while others would bring back the knowledge they learned in Corsehel and teach it to others.

All of them have different missions.

To have such great demands from us, it's really giving me a headache. And there's clashes with our personality.

Of these, those who are to become protectors have to learn how to fight using weapons.

Oh, are you busy, Guretsu?

Too slow, too slow, too slow!
When will the special training start?!

This is too slow!

I was looking forward to this day so much, and when I'm finally here, she is late!

This is only my 3rd time here.

Elle is not here yet, we can't do anything about it.

Meo, isn't it alright if you don't come for this training?

Is that so? Training can help to strengthen our bodies, isn't it good?

99%

喉

The training is not as fun as you think, Elle is super strict.

The wooden swords used for training, I asked the Tatsu
smith to make one for everyone.

This is

Ah? What's
that?

That's why
I'm late.

Ah, because I went to get this.

I would rather you not research so much.

Like for me, I prefer to research and create new magics.

The one in charge of training them, would be the Dragon Mege
most skilled at using weapons.

Did Elle say where she is going?

Because I went to take something so Elle took mine.

Hey?
What about
yours?

Yes, for Guretsu to hold your own sword in the first practice, you must be very happy.

Wow, is there
mine?
Is there?

Sorry
for the long wait.

Hey

Back on the topic,
she's really slow.
Could she have forgotten something.

What
happened?
They look as if they have some trouble.

Wia, I finally caught up with him.

No, I didn't hear her mention anything.

Where could Elle had gone.

Isn't she with you?

Hey?
Elle is not here yet?

You came here from the giver?

Lyric

Because I I'm going to be late so I took the shortcut.

So, you say you can find Elze?

When she was falling off the bridge I gave her a hand. I never thought that she'd be so thankful so I've done a good thing

Hey, what happened?

ha ha ha You are really out of your mind

I'm the water Dragon Mage's first dragon, Lyke. It's a pleasure to meet you.

Ah

store

I'll help with that!

Hi!

You all are looking for the water Dragon Mage right? I can use light dragon mages to search

I'm the light Dragon Mage's first dragon, my name is Merryell.

Excuse me.

Ah

Thank you for your help just now.

ハニ

I'm the earth Dragon Mage Lambeles' second dragon, Robby. It's a pleasure to meet you too.

I'm the wood Dragon Mage Kado's second dragon, Rei.

I'm the wind Dragon Mage Mitsu's third dragon, Guressa.

Ah I'm the fire Dragon Mage Ifuru's first dragon, Meo.

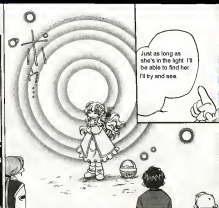

Ah, it's really much

Other than that...

It's the first time I'm seeing young light dragons.

We tool

The village near the lake? Isn't that the Nyls village?

Near the lake ahead. I can sense that she is near the village.

If she's in charge of weapons training, then she must be the strongest among the Dragon Mages. I admire strong women a lot.

Yes. Elle is in charge of training us.

Ah, so it's training for you to become protectors in the future?

Very?

Huh?

That girl is following us.

Mom is also very strong, but not on using weapons.

Joshua wrote a letter again?!

This is too easily excited.

She's so calm everyday, no matter what happens, once you see her, you'll know how strong she is mentally.

Weapons?

Hey, you are here to learn how to use weapons?

Excuse me, may I come along too?

He said it would be bad if anything goes wrong, so he told us to go there slowly.

Ah, where's Lyric?

Huh?
Where's Ella?

Quick, quick, it's the most exciting
part right now.
Come over
quick!

I tell you.

What is it, Rai?

Rorby!
Gureus!

If we miss this match, then it's really a waste!

My Dragon Mage Mikeu is also very great!
He's the only Dragon Mage
who can use
dragon magics,
even if his dragonette not nearby!

Hey

But once, Moin faced difficulties too.
That time, Rassuen returned to Cornetel
after some tasks, and met her.
He helped her, and they stayed together after that.

Something of teacher Lambales that I am proud of...
Errn this.
Something about him
that I'm proud about...

Gureus is so proud of his Dragon
Mage.

00

And, he can sing
well, and speaks
interestingly too!

Errn... Errn...
He should have some good points...

Ah

What about Rorby?

Shh... Be quiet and look, Elle is really trying her best.

Wh... What? What happened?

Since. Since it didn't hit you don't be so narrow sighted

✱
Lyric, you bastard!!
Are you trying to kill me!?

When did you reach here?

Good,
are you hurt?

What

Not for dragon magics, but for courses such as weapons training, just as long as someone good at it is teaching, there is not much difference.

Although there might be some differences in the techniques, it all comes down to the student, whether or not did they try their best to learn.

Yes, it's too huge a burden for me to train all of you alone.

So I'm thinking of getting someone stronger than me to help.

But, it took too long for a winner to be decided.

Of course!

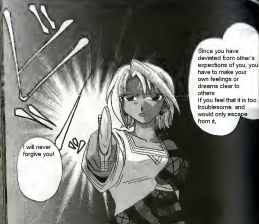

After that match, I know that I'm totally not your opponent.

I'll have special training again when I get back.

We better not say

Yeah...

I will never forgive you!

Since you have deviated from other's expectations of you, you have to make your own feelings or dreams clear to others.
If you feel that it is too troublesome, and would only escape
from it,

After understanding the reasons
and settings as to why the rules
are set, if one feels that the rules have to be changed without causing much problems, then it's alright.

Although rules are there for a reason, one cannot blindly
follow them.

It's the same for all of you.

...Yes,
-!

Yes

But

In your tribes, the adults have different aspirations for your futures.
However, it is alright for you to follow your own dreams.

Lyric, thank you for saving me two times.

Mariyell said before... She admires strong women...

What is she doing here?

I remember that child is the light dragon Mariyell.

To make your own feelings clear to others": these are such great words, I'm so touched!

understand.

I have to work hard for my own dreams too!

I'm supposed to be doing some tasks.

Ah, oh no.

Then I'll be leaving first.

And, look Elie Marryell has other plans in her mind.

Oh ho
Oh ho

Hey

You're still saying that. The one who's supposed to be in charge is Lambales.

Then it's all up to you, Elie.

Ah, ok ok

It's not easy for me to come here!

How long are you planning to chatter chatter? The training is about to start!

After joining in the training sessions from today onwards.

It's a pleasure to train beside you.

It's alright, but I've never expected the light dragon tribe leader to write a letter of acceptance.

The nature of light dragons is to pursue their own targets no matter what it takes.

Then please take care of Marryell

*Allow her to learn to use weapons! gwa gwa blah blah

第5話

~看得到夢的人~

I'm saying first, he is injured right now!

He can't even fight now.

There's something that I can be proud of my teacher.

Teacher Lamberles is the strongest.

Rorby, don't you know? The one best at weapon fights is Lamberles.

Hey, he's smarter than you.

Even the dragon tribe leader feels that he's making sense.

I asked him to at least come and help out, but he's injured, and have to stay in bed to recuperate.

But he said, "My skills are our honed, I've never been to a teacher before, so I'm not suitable to be a teacher."

Then everyone, the training shall begin. Go run 3 rounds around the lake.

I'll be trying my best during training too!

If I can become as strong as teacher Lamberles.

Yes

Just wait a bit longer, someone might stumble in, or the dragon mages in the outside world will find suitable persons.

He does have the gift, but... He just recovered from a illness, even speaking is difficult for him.

How about the person who just scaled Corsetel's peaks and came in?

We can't find a successor.

It has troubled the dragon mages.

In Corsetel, for every dragon tribe, there can only be one dragon mage. For thousands of years after this rule is set, Guch!

Other than the wind dragon mage with wind dragon bloodlines, other dragon mages from the other dragon tribes face difficulties in finding successors in time.

Miseu, aren't you getting clumsy these days.

Sigh, if the young dragon mages are already like this, then Corsetel's future is bleak...

Gladys granny has already been dead for half a year, but there's still no successor to be the next wood dragon mage. If this continues on, what should the wood dragons do?

He's only 8 years old, he will be too much for him.

No way!

Seems like we'll have to ask Maciel.

Jen and Rottaruku are still at home... we have to get back quick!

Ah... erm... Nissan!

A lot of strange people!

And she brought a lot of strange people back, and said it was a gift.

Come quick!

Nissan... Nissan Nissan!

Clumsy... These few days... I surely am...

There, a lot of strange people!

Jen, Rottaruku, where's the strange people!

Ah teacher is back!

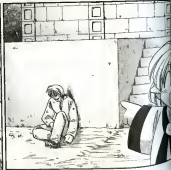

Mother Cajade is back!

It's only 1 person... how could it be a lot of strange people?

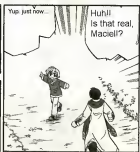

But it's a lot of strange people...

And she went out again.

Then what did she come back for?

Yup, just now...

Huh!! Is that real, Maciel?

That's right. That was what I was waiting for.

I'll let you all have a better life in the future.

It's just a little wish,
but...

he wishes.

Mitsu
answered.

Ah,
you're awake!

His health condition seems strange. get him into the house fast!

Yes.

I'm a lot of strange people....

I'm... really sorry...

Do you really have to leave?

You all don't need to worry,
their school
there is free.

That's a far city, seems like I won't be coming back soon.

And once I graduate from there,
I can get a high paying job immediately isn't that good?

We can still handle it at home... Although the harvest is not good this year, but it'll surely be better next year. You don't need to leave to help us earn money.

The reason I'm not feeling well are these.

I'm not ill.

Milieu, he hasn't been looking very good.

Why are you shaking this badly? What kind of illness is this?

Because these could seal up any magical abilities, that's why I have been feeling dizzy.

These are "Tatsoos of sealing".

Oh, so you can see 5, it's not bad.

Huh? It looks like 5 strange moles.

Each seal represents an ability, only those with the corresponding ability would be able to see them and they can only be unsealed by those who can see all of them.

I would be swinging here and there, it's because I haven't been eating these few days.

This is my brother, Maciel, and the wind dragons I'm looking after, Jen and Rottanuku.

The wind dragon mage who brought you here.

Cejadellina, is my mother.

That's great, you've woken up.

You said... Dragon mage?

I didn't know! She forced me to listen her tales of her son, then just dragged me here.

Yes... Huh? Did mother tell you? Aren't you here to be a dragon mage?

No, it's alright if you don't get up now.

Then she said that her son is in this occupation too, then she rattled on and on...

No... at the start, she did say something about this...?

She suddenly stopped me and asked me if I want to be what...

I forgot to ask you something very important.

Ah yes, yesterday.

Yesterday, we haven't even chatted much, then you fell asleep.

To have a good night's sleep after a good meal isn't bad at all.

h? That's right.

I've made some soup, do you want some? You should still have some appetite right? Is that right?

Then wait a minute. I'll go and get it.

So you're hungry!?

!?

But when you're sick, most important is that it's nutritious, you won't mind the taste... I had that when I was down with flu too, after lying in bed for one day, I was better...

Em, it's onisari's turn to cook dinner tonight... He had just cooked herbal soup...

I want to ask your name.

Teacher is so cool.

I woke up early in the morning to tell the other dragon mages but I suddenly remembered it, so I turned back.

No, not that. It's something more important.

You're asking me if I want to be a dragon mage? I've told you just as long as the seals are not removed, then I-

Good morning, did you have a good night's sleep?

still don't understand

When I was young, said I wanted a human friend of about the same age as me, she must have remembered that to bring you here

The one who didn't make things clear is you. There's no head or tail to what you're saying

Mother brought people back for this kind of reason again. And she didn't even explain about dragon mages.

Teacher-Teacher-

Errr, how should I put it?

Via! Maciel is here!

Ah? Millou rasan is back?

Ah, that's right.

If you don't get out quick, Maciel would have finished preparing breakfast

According to your mother, we are also born on the same day

Huh? You are the same age as me?

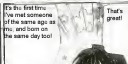

Just call my name. I don't want to be called "Mr" by someone of the same age

Then I'll call you Mr. Kadro.

First time? Is there that little people here?

It's the first time I've met someone of the same age as me, and born on the same day too!

That's great!

What a headache, I'm leaving

Ah

Please keep it a secret from Maciel that I'm entering and leaving through the window, he really likes to worry

What? What is it now?

Ah

I'm Ekabas Kadro... Everyone calls me Kadro.

Egg?

When introducing you to others, or just calling you, we need to know your name. Without a name, it would be difficult to even call an egg!

Yesterday, someone new came in. Though he wasn't like you climbing in despite your fever and stuff.

How do you feel now? I heard that you just recovered from fever.

Good morning, Lam helps

Valeru

Mother brought someone new back
It's so great, he's the same age as me
His name is Ekabes. Kadio.

He told me not to call me 'M', because he is the same age as me.

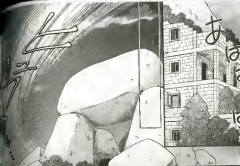

Then, this I don't know what's great about that, but she brought back someone who can make you happy.

Ah, Kirisu.

What is it so early in the morning?

Wash

Ah

Hey?

Ah, sorry, Jan.

Really—Teacher fell down again—

are really well bonded

You
dragon mages
and dragons

Alright, alright,
we'll just wait
for a while

No, I want to eat together
with teacher and Jent!

Lambales,
you know
something

I've heard of that name somewhere.

Elabes

A family? I really admire
you.

Because we are family!

My wife told me once.

That time, she was still healthy.

Ever since I left the village, I never returned.
It's a long time since I have this feeling of home

She loves spirits. Elabes is a name related to the legendary spirits.

Ah Kadio,
do you want to become a dragon
mage?

If you become a dragon mage, you can have lots of family!

Because
there's no home left

You never go home

Rottenku, do you want to eat first?

I'm
hungry...

Mitsu
reisen is so slow...

One is the Traveling Moon spirit
Elabes

According to legends, when stars
were first born,
there were 2 spirits
of the moon.

The people called the place where this spirit is born "Elabes".

I heard that people born in that place,

they would become the moon spirit
mages.

Yes, in the dragon tribes,
because there are no longer any moon dragons, so the dragon mages didn't take much notice.
But, I remember Elabes is now
the country of spirit mages.

Dark, light, wind, earth,
water, fire, wood...
Other than these 7
elements, there's still one which I don't know.

But I'm still a trainee right
now, and I'm still studying,
so I won't be able to unveil them.

Ah, didn't you have 8 seeds?

Now, it's the same as I having no magical gifts
at all.
I can't be a dragon mage.

You. Where did you come from?

No matter it's the past or present, the spirits are still called Elsbies.

These so-called spirit mages, they would chase spirits out of their homeland, and take away their place, forcefully using their magics for their own gains.

Why?
??

Misae, if the person Cajadeline brought back is a spirit mage, we have to chase him out immediately.

If such people know of dragons, and know Corsetel's location, who knows what would happen to Corsetel.

Hm.

But, I like the legend she believes in the most.

Corsetel has its legend too, like the Immortal Dragon City, the Secret Infinite Powers city.

It's the first time I've heard this legend.

The other is the Sleeping Moon spirit.

Ah...

The tattoos of sealing.

Did that person say anything of his birthplace?

His birthplace? No, I've never heard him mention it.

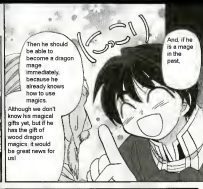

Yes, Kinsu. Radio doesn't seem to be able to speak much, but if he's only visiting Corsetel, then we can let it go. But he's here to stay in Corsetel, we shouldn't chase him off, right?

I like the legend too.

Well, that's not wrong.

According to legends, where these spirits sleep, anyone who will disturb their sleep would be unable to enter their territory, only those who can understand their gentle dreams can get closer to them.

He would have those seals, that means he was a spirit mage?

Wow!

Huh

Wow

Ahh!

Cuch...
When I can finally say something beautifully...

Because of that reason, I lost my hometown and my family...

But it's tiring on my own.
With that said, when that lady brought me here, it seemed so easy.

With such a big forest, it isn't strange to see so many spirits.

The little spirits have such curiosity; they are not afraid of humans.

Although I want to leave this place.

The hills became more barren, and the crops yield became lesser
and lesser each year.

In the past, Elisbe is just like this.

But since I was young,
the ground
had begun to wither.

Come to Crestel

I hope
you can become friends with my dad

and

If possible,
I hope you can become a dragon
mage, is that alright?

Huh?

Hey...
Hey...

Just as I've thought, you can learn magics, and you are from the same village as Macis! If you become a dragon mage, everyone
here would be very happy.

you can understan-dreams.

The spirits
that you've heard told me,

Kadio, you are a spirit mage, aren't you?

Hey

I was a "yuan" spirit
mage,

because I let the spirits go, I was chased out...

That's
right!

And you are from the same village
as Macis,
right?

On the beach hill
that time, I was filled with regret
and fatigue, and
my mind is cloudy.

Hey,
are you Kadio?

When your mother found me, I was on a hill slightly away from Ellebes.

I didn't want to be a mage again...

But I'll try...
To live with my new family...

They'll be back soon, just wait a bit longer.

I'm hungry

he's alone here

Then let's go back, everyone is waiting for us

Alright

But please do not tell the child that I'm from the same village as him. It's impossible for me to tell him now, but I'll tell him that one day.

Yup, I finally know why it feels strange when I first met Kadio

Maciel, you seem very happy

I understand, I won't say anything.

To meet someone from his village, he should be very happy

Yes, that's a tragedy, but...

Didn't... Didn't you hear me just now? That child's village was destroyed because of spirit mages!

Happy haven't say whether I want to be a dragon mage!

What remains is to remove those seals. Maciel says he can see 8 of them, but I'm not sure whether the glue of spirit mages is the same as dragon mages...

Ah, really?

I can remove them myself.

Is this guy really the same age as me?

You don't want to?

If you really have it so much, then there's no choice

To remove those seals, there's no need for that child's powers and send them yourself

For love letters,
it's better
if you write it to just one person,

Huh

You really like to worry

Ranuku. Ernie, there's a beastie here in Corsebel, you better
be careful.

...After
that, the postman came home more frequently.

Lyric... He's too pitiful... I really don't know how to encourage him...

I think so too

How pitiful is a too much

Huh? Huh?

Huh?
But
why?

This happened when
the postman was sending letters to the water dragon mage

Mr postman.

It's alright, there are so many of

Emm, can you help me send these letter?

石動鮎魔

When Kadou finally became a dragon mage, his first request was to care for 2 dragon eggs.

Because you have no experience, so you should try. 2 trainee dragons would be of much help to you, that's what the tribe thinks.

Why is there 2 of a sudden!

Huh

This is very thing!

It's not good at all
I'll have to think of 2 names at one go!

Somewhat we keep hearing the same story from others.

Because of this, after consulting tomes of naming book, after lots of thinking till the brain shut down, and they were thus named.

In the end, Kadou and Maciel didn't say anything, and Mitsu kept his promise till this day.

Not

Ro!

Tired and sleepy . . .

Up till here, there's no characters which are more suitable to be drawn. . . The water dragon family is the most thing to draw, don't know how much ideas and corrections are used.

To draw the chapter main pages is more work than it seems. It's the first time for so many to be compiled together and drawn at one go. And all the dragon mages have finally made an appearance.

... Although I had wanted to draw at a long time ago. Although it's very time consuming, but it's also a chance, it's great that I can finish drawing them. And I've finally drawn the wind and wood baby dragons.

As a conclusion, everything is great. Just like a scar which has forgotten it's pain. . . Sigh, this doesn't seem to be a good sentence to use. . .
